

Clinical Risk Management Specialist

Background

Launched in November 2016, EthiQal offers South Africa's first homegrown occurrence-based medical indemnity solution. With a firm belief that the medical profession is a national asset that must be safeguarded for the well-being of the nation, the company is committed to actively protecting doctors, their practices and their patients.

As a company that cares about the future of medical care in South Africa, collaboration with healthcare practitioners, their professional societies, the legal profession and government representatives is seen to be a cornerstone of bringing stability to the medico-legal landscape, securing the future of the medical profession and preserving and building medical care in the country for everyone's benefit.

Main purpose of the job

To achieve EthiQal's vision of being the leading provider of professional indemnity solutions through the assessment of clinical and practice risks and proactive clinical and practice risk management

Location

EthiQal is based on a distributed work model which provides employees with the freedom to work from home, where desired

Key performance areas

- Assessment of individual practitioner's medicolegal risk, taking into consideration clinical and practice management risks
- Sound understanding and implementation of EthiQal's underwriting methodology and guidelines
- Clinical review of individual claims
- Support of operational work processes to ensure streamlined client services
- Analysis of notifications to the insurer to identify risk indicators
- Implementation of risk reduction initiatives

Required minimum education and training

- MBCHB

Required minimum work experience

- 7+ years in clinical risk management

Desirable additional education, work experience and personal abilities

- Post-graduate qualification in ethics and/or medical law
- Previous underwriting and/or insurance industry experience
- Analytical skills
- Good interpersonal skills, ability to work in a team and excellent verbal and written communication
- Attention to detail, Professional, Discreet, Self-Motivated, Authentic, Eager to Learn

To apply

Submit your CV with a short paragraph on why you are interested in applying for the role via email to jobs@constantigroup.co.za.

Deadline 22 January 2021.